Employment Guidelines for McDonald's Warwick & Stanthorpe

-  McDonald's is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
-  Manners and politeness are everything at McDonald's. We practice and expect; please, Thank-you's and polite manners from all staff at all times, in all situations.
-  We talk behaviour, never personality when addressing an issue with a staff member. We will always focus on the behaviour in question and never the character or personality of the person. We believe a persons self worth should remain intact regardless of the circumstances.
-  We take responsibility when we do something wrong. We insist our staff do the same. If we make a commitment to someone, we do everything possible to make that happen. We expect the same from all staff.
-  Swearing is not a part of a professional workplace. We tolerate no swearing at McDonald's.
-  McDonald's has an open door policy with regard to any questions or concerns a staff member may have at any time. If any staff member has a query regarding any area of work, all Management and Corporate Staff are 100% accessible at all times.
-  If we have an issue with a member of staff, we take the problem directly to that person with a view to enhancing the working environment for all involved. We will not discuss an issue with anyone other than those directly related to the problem. The same courtesy is expected of all staff.
-  Sickness. If a Crew Person is too ill to come to work, a Doctor's Certificate is required. If a Doctor's Certificate is unavailable, the only suitable substitute will be a telephone call direct from a Parent to the Store Manager.
-  Bullying/Harrassment/Sexual Harrassment is not tolerated in any form at any time.

Yes, I want to assist in raising a child who is hard working, polite and takes responsibility. I agree to McDonald's stance on the above principles and will assist to support them. For Crew under 16 years (or Year 10), the conditions of employment as governed by the Child Employment Act 2006 are in force, and I agree to sign the relevant Parent Consent Form where necessary.
